BRIEFLETS.

—The cadets meet for drill to-night.

—Prof. Severance's dancing school meet to-night.

—Remember the Republican caucuses to-morrow evening.

—Every week now causes the days to be about twenty minutes shorter.

—Bartley Campbell's "My Geraldine" is to be given at the Opera house this evening.

—The deeds for the land taken by the city for the opening of Park avenue, have all been duly executed.

—S. S. Lovejoy took the contract for building new sidewalks about the First ward school building.

—The inspection of the Delavan Guards which was to have been held last evening by Adjutant Newman, has been postponed until Saturday night.

—The sale of seats for the "Banker's Daughter," which is to be given here next Tuesday evening, will begin at Prentice & Evenson's to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

—City Treasurer Haselton has a notice in another column which is of special interest to those who have not paid their taxes. He proposes on the 9th of next month to ask the court to render judgment for unpaid amounts.

—The Guards' armory socials will commence in November, and will be held once in two weeks, on Friday nights.

The armory floor is being prepared for dancing, and will be made one of the best in the State. The furnishing of the armory will be completed as soon as possible, and the formal opening will take place on or about the 15th of November.

—Bartley Campbell's name has become familiar to the country by the popularity of his plays, "The Galley Slave," "My Partner," etc., but "My Geraldine," which is to be presented at the Opera house this evening, is pronounced by many the best play he has yet written. The company is an excellent one, and those who go to the Opera house this evening will find themselves amply repaid.

—The four young ladies who with others were happily entertained at Obe Lusk's home in Fond du Lac during last week, have sought to express in part their appreciation of the many favors shown them during their visit, by joining in a very beautiful little birthday gift, in the form of a four leaf clover, made of solid gold, and engraved with the monograms of the donors. It is a charming souvenir and cannot but be greatly esteemed by the recipient.

—Judge Gibbs, of Whitewater, who is known by almost every body, here, was in the city to-day, and stepped into a bank to get a certificate check cashed. To his surprise he found that it was necessary to be identified. He had only to step to the door and beckon with his fingers to gather a half-dozen friends, and he was not delayed any in his business, and acknowledged it was a good joke on himself. The Judge is convinced that western homes do change some, and that once acquainted is not always acquainted.

—Janesville has a club which meets every evening. It resembles the "Lime Kiln" club in many respects, especially in the gravity of its discussions. No one is allowed to discuss a question without first bottling the cigars. The differences of opinion generally arise upon such issues as the weight of one of the member's boots, the height of his hat, the number of kernels in a handful of coffee, etc. Almost everything in the store where the meetings are held has been weighed or measured, and cigars lost and won upon it. At last accounts two of the members had bet the cigars on who could make the most foolish bet.

—One of the tramp gangs last night tried to get permission to sleep in one of the round houses, and on being refused, wanted to soil a pair of new boots to get money enough to pay for lodgings. One of the men was about to pay him a dollar for the boots, when he discovered that they were not mates, one being an 8 and the other a 6. The tramp was promptly freed out, and proceeding to the lay press near by, offered the boots for sale to a man there. On learning that a dollar was all that he asked, this man jumped at the bargain, picked up one boot, saw that it was No. 8, just his size, paid his dollar, and took the boots.

After the tramp had left he thought he would try on his new boots. The first fitted well, but the other wouldn't go on at all. The purchaser of the boots sat in a puzzle for a few minutes wondering what had made his other foot swell so, and then it occurred to him to see if the boot was not smaller. A madder man one seldom sees than that fellow when he saw it was only No. 6. To-day he came down town with the odd boots and tried to get them mated. When he struck Anderson's on Main street, that gentleman was very glad to mate them. He recognized them as having been stolen from him the day before, and by arbitration the loss of the dollar was divided between them.

"Don't Know Half Their Value."

"They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint as recommended. I had a half bottle left, which I used for two little girls who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good, I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."—B. Roehsger, N. Y. See other column.

BYING THE MILITIA.

Last evening the military companies of the city had their annual inspections. The first held was that of the Bower City Rifles, at their spacious armory, in Bennett's block. A goodly number of friends were present and the inspection was made by Colonel N. Smith, about 8 o'clock. There were forty-six men in line, and the company presented an excellent appearance. They also showed some of their proficiency in drill. The Rifles showed they have been steadily improving in all respects, and their appearance last evening called forth much merited praise from those who witnessed their movements. After the inspection a merry dance followed in which the friends of the company joined and a very happy social season resulted.

The inspection of the Janesville Guards took place shortly before 9 o'clock at their new armory in Myers' block. The boys showed up strong, there being 55 men in line, and their appearance was eyed with pride by many friends. The Guards had arranged for no social doings of special interest, as they are waiting for the finishing touches to be put upon their armory before having a formal dedication, which will be an event of more than usual importance and interest.

Janesville may well feel proud of its militia, for no city can show better, and those who predicted that two companies could not exist here, have little to say now in view of the fact that they not only exist, but increase in proficiency and maintain a high degree of enthusiasm and financial prosperity.

HORRIBLY BURNED.

Last night Dr. Palmer was called to Monroe to attend to the injuries received by Miss Ella Judd, a young lady of that place, who met with a terrible accident early in the evening. She had a kerosene lamp in her hand and was passing through the parlor, when her brother entered hurriedly, and the door being sprung open suddenly struck the lamp, breaking it into pieces, spilling the oil over her dress, and that at once caught fire, blazing quickly. The young lady ran into an adjoining room, her clothing all on fire, and her mother, father, and brother all hurried to her help. In subduing the flames they all got their hands and arms burned badly, and even with this sacrifice were not able to put out the flames in time to prevent serious injuries to Miss Judd. Her clothes below the waist were burned, literally, off of her, fairly roasting the flesh, and the upper part of her body was also severely burned, and every bit of her clothing was more or less charred. Her condition is very critical indeed, and it seems almost impossible that she should long survive such horrible injuries as she thus received.

It lies on the wings of the morning, good news as well as bad, always. We mean the fame of "Dr. Sykes' Sure Cure for Catarrh."

A HAPPY GATHERING.

The tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Stoller, of Emerald Grove, was celebrated by a large number of their friends, on Friday evening, Oct. 21. About a hundred and fifty guests put in an appearance from Bradford, La Prairie, Johnston and other places. Ample refreshments were served and a becoming hilarity and good feeling prevailed. The tokens of neighborly regard brought in by the visitors were quite numerous, and some of them valuable, while others were intended for memento of the occasion. They came down with the tin in a magnificent watch and chain and came for Charley, and a splendid ring for his bride, the mother of five children (pretty well for ten years of wedded life), and with this display of jewelry, through the ring service, they were wedded the second time by Rev. G. W. Lawrence, who performed the original ceremony ten years ago. The occasion throughout was a very enjoyable one to all concerned.

KELOGG IS COMING.

The announcement that Clara Louise Kellogg, is to give a grand concert at the Congregational church here, Wednesday evening, November 2, has awakened much interest, not merely among those who are passionately fond of music, or professionally concerned in it, but among all classes, for the name and fame of the great artist are everywhere known. The sale of seats thus far indicates that the house will be filled. Many are holding off preferring to pay one dollar for admission on the evening of the concert, than to pay a half dollar extra now for the sake of reserving a seat. If those who are thus planning all wait until that evening, there will be a big rush then.

Arrangements have been made with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway to sell tickets at forty per cent discount from regular rates, and to run a special train to Milton Junction after the concert, connecting with trains to Palmyra, Whitewater, Lima, Edgerton, Stoughton, Fort Atkinson, Jefferson, etc.

This gives an excellent opportunity for those in the vicinity of Janesville to attend this great musical event. The tickets can be secured by mail or telegram by addressing Prentice & Evenson.

BECAUSE IT ADDS TO PERSONAL BEAUTY by restoring color and lustre to gray or faded hair, and is beneficial to the scalp, is why Parker's Hair Balsam is such a popular dressing.

MUCH BIRTH.

Billy Arlington and his company of minstrels appeared at the Opera house last evening. Strangely enough the audience was not as large a one as usually greets a minstrel show, but entertainments are not now coming in so fast that it is impossible for all to draw crowds. There was a fair sized audience, however, last night, and they seemed well pleased with the efforts of Arlington and his company to amuse them. Arlington is a host in himself. He is a natural humorist, and in all of his doings he seems to carry on the fun as though it was something fresh to him as well as to the audience. The company with him is a very good one, and together they kept the audience in a roar. "The Three Doves" called forth a roar of laughter, and proved as really laughable as anything ever seen on the stage here. "The Shipwreck" was another happy hit, and the merry take-offs on Pinaro were heartily enjoyed. In this were woven together little bits of old songs, sandwiched with witticisms, which gave a jovial air to life upon the canal boat. The poorest feature of the entertainment was the orchestra, which needs a new revision, badly, but with this improvement the company would be very strong.

Arlington makes no pretensions of having a company of enormous proportions and unwieldy numbers. He has chosen rather to get together talent than numbers, and he has succeeded admirably.

The troupe left this morning for Madison, and after visiting Portage and Oshkosh, will open in Milwaukee, and afterwards at Arlington's old stamping ground in Chicago.

Sellers' Liver Pills have been the standard remedy for malaria, liver complaint, constipation, etc., for fifty years.

Beds of Down Feel Hard.

All beds seem hard to the rheumatic. Then harken ye peevish sufferers! Apply Dr. Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil to your aching joints and muscles. Rely upon this, you will experience speedy relief. Such is the testimony of those who have used it. The remedy is likewise resorted to for throat and lung diseases, sprains, bruises, etc. Sold by A. J. Roberts and Shorer & Co.
